

TRAV'LER Antenna QUIZ

1. In choosing a location for the TRAV'LER antenna, it is important to ____.
 - a. Keep in mind where cables will need to be routed to.
 - b. Find a flat area of the roof to mount the base to.
 - c. Mount in an area that is clear of obstructions.
 - d. All of the above.

2. The TRAV'LER antenna must be mounted PARALLEL to the center line of the coach roof, stowing towards the rear of the RV.
 - a. True
 - b. False

3. Obstructions TALLER than 8" must be at least 3' from the center of the unit.
 - a. True
 - b. False

4. The TRAV'LER can be mounted right next to a low obstruction (a plumbing vent 8" or lower), as long as it isn't in the area where the TRAV'LER stows.
 - a. True
 - b. False

5. To properly install the TRAV'LER antenna, you should first place the unit on the roof and ____.
 - a. Screw it down to the roof.
 - b. Install the reflector.
 - c. Mark each hole and place sealant on the markings, and then connect each marking with a single line of sealant in the shape of the base.
 - d. Remove the LNB to keep it out of the way.

6. How many coax wires are required for the TRAV'LER antenna to operate properly?
 - a. None
 - b. At least 1 for each receiver
 - c. 2
 - d. 3
 - e. 4

7. To install the reflector, you must first raise the antenna by using the User Interface Box.
 - a. True
 - b. False

8. To power the User Interface Box, it is important to find a good source of 12V power.
 - a. True
 - b. False

9. On the Interface Box, once powered on, pressing and holding [SELECT] for 2 seconds will allow the installer into "MENU MODE".
- True
 - False
10. After the installation is complete, before the user is able to watch all channels, it may be necessary to ____.
- Connect a laptop to the Interface Box for a software download
 - Make sure the receiver is set up properly.
 - Manually point the dish.
 - Set your region.